Form Summary

Please share your educational and career goals/aspirations and how you plan to move toward greatness:

Currently I am attending Cumberland University in Tennessee and I hope to keep my grades up, greater than a 3.0 gpa, and look to transfer to another school to seek higher goals for myself. As I mentioned, I am apart of the wrestling team and I feel like I have a lot left to offer, so I want to work hard to get to where I want to be. In order for that to happen, I need to keep my grades as one of my main priorities. As of right now I am a business management major. I plan on using that degree to eventually become a real-estate developer. The goal is to leave a mark on the world, but first my community. I want to create communities that look not only appealing to my people, but is marked at a reasonable price as well. I am tired of one side of the city looking better than the other and nobody is trying to change the narrative. Outside of helping improve my community I want to own multiple estate across the world. People will remember my last name well after I am gone. I just want to make in impact on several peoples lives. I am also very active in my church community too. Therefore I am open to playing a bigger role within the church while attacking my dreams as well. I am all about achieving generational wealth.
